Wilt hiltop

64

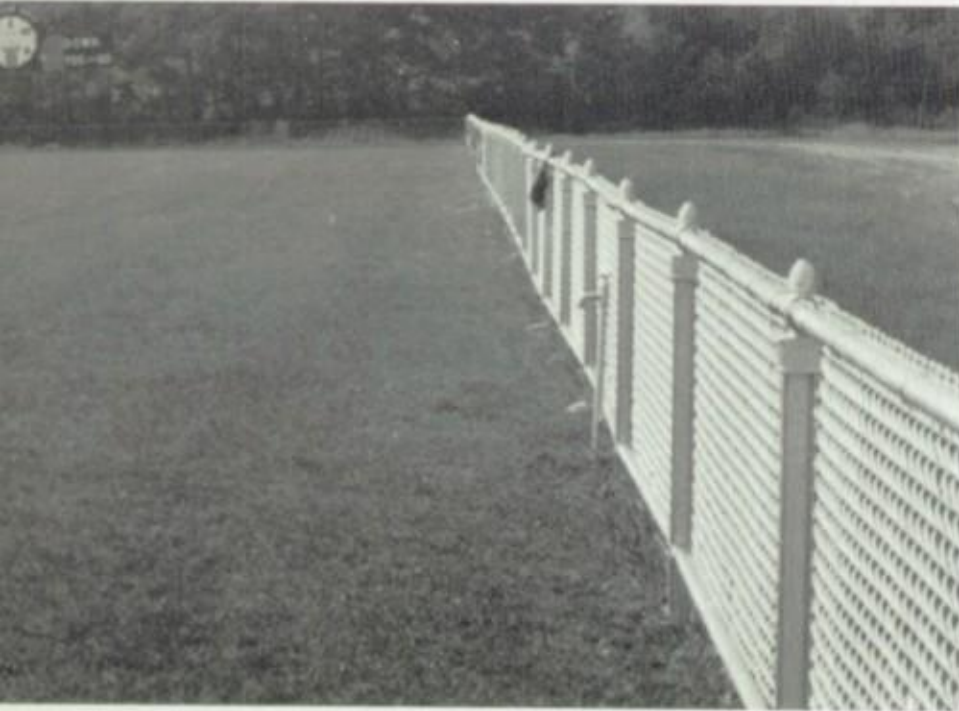

The rude bridge that arched the flood.

Good fences make good neighbors.

The willow hangs with sheltering grace.

The ever-winding path to knowledge.

All the day's toil is past.

And wisdom at one entrance

The small wonders of nature

And the gaunt woods wrap their old limbs with somber ivy twine.

Within that awful volume lies
The mystery of mysteries.

Now fades the glimmering landscape
And all the air a solemn stillness holds.

Sprechen Sie Deutsch?

Environment is the greatest education.

High on a lonely hill

The aimless, wandering freshmen.

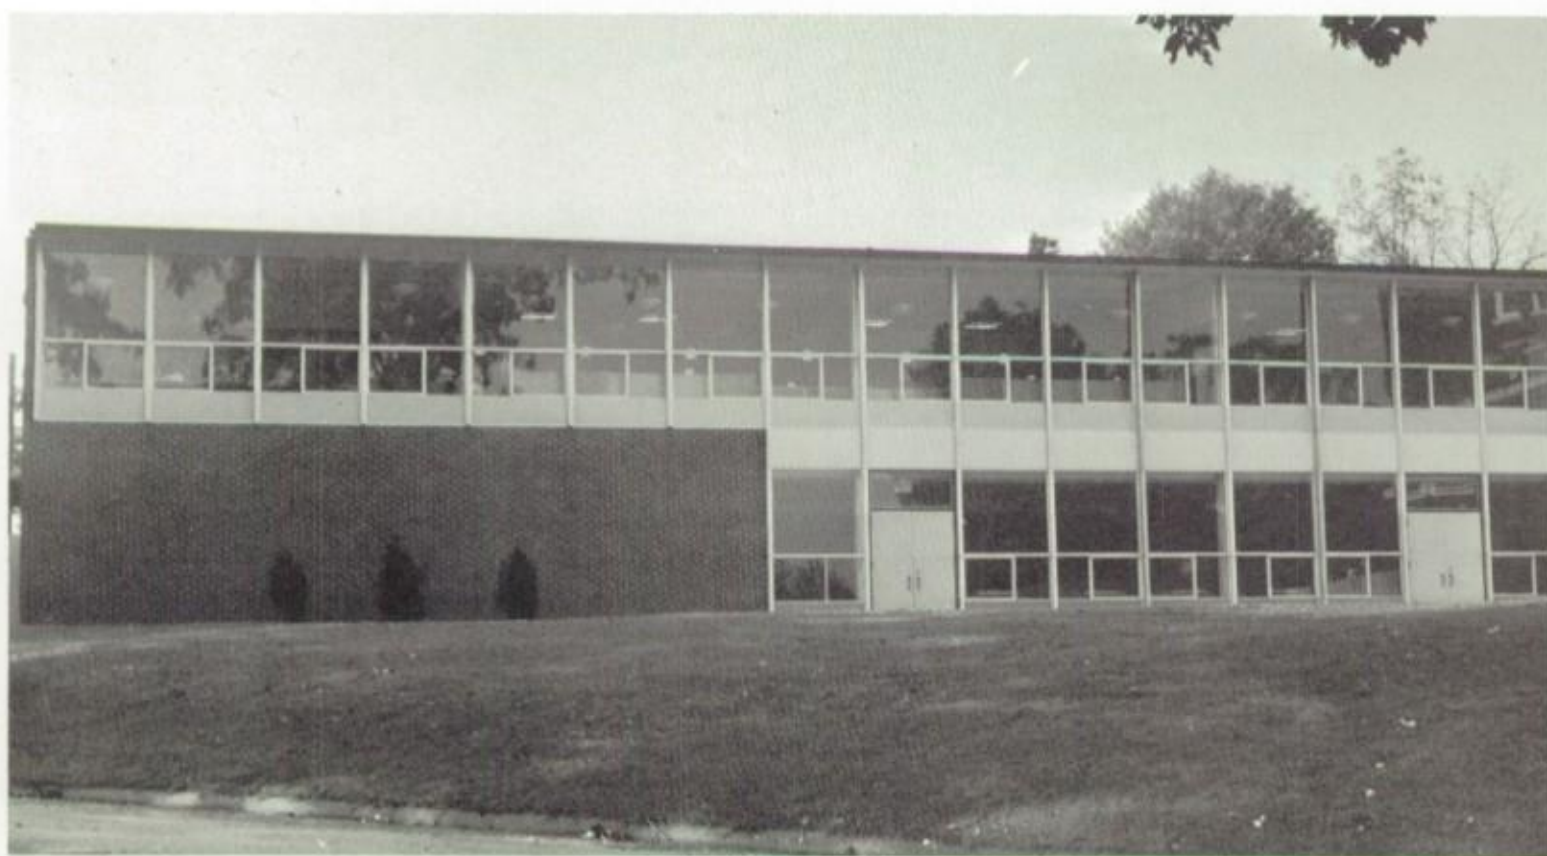

Work doesn't bother me. I can sit and watch it forever.

The riches minds need not large libraries.

The test of a civilization is its architecture.

Native humor reigns.

MRS. ADAMS

The Home Economics Department at H.H.S. has long served to teach young girls the arts of cooking and sewing. We consider our Home Economics Department one of the finest. It is through the efforts of Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Wisdom that it has reached its high standing. With patience and understanding they have worked to guide each girl that enters their classrooms into a well-prepared, young homemaker.

And so it is to you, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Wisdom, and your department, that we dedicate this 1964 HILTOP with thanks for working to build a better world.

The Board of Education, elected by the people, is the group of men that is the governing body of our school unit. They see that we have the finest teachers and the best equipment to make this one of the best school systems in the state.

It is to these men that we wish to express our sincere gratitude for making ours the fine school that it is.

MR. DON BEANE
Unit Superintendent

THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

Left to right: Mr. Harold Wampler, Mr. Charles Vail, Mr. John Rundquist (Secretary), Mr. William Purcell

(President), Mr. Marvin Traylor, Mr. George Brohammer, Mr. Clarence Zerrusen, Mr. Don Beane.

MR. F. ERNEST TUTHILL
Principal

THE OFFICE STAFF

The office staff, a group of volunteer student workers, help Mr. Tuthill and his secretary, Janet Carlyle, carry out the duties connected with the principal's office. With their help Mr. Tuthill keeps the school running efficiently and attends to the everyday problems of the students and faculty.

HOMECOMING

The weekend of October the 18th was an exciting one for the students of H.H.S. It began early Thursday afternoon with the Homecoming parade from the school to the Court House. Here the cheerleaders and students alike yelled their favorite cheers. Thursday night everyone again screamed and yelled. But this time the atmosphere was different. By the light of a blazing bonfire, spirit rose higher than the flames.

The players sensed this same Homecoming spirit Friday night as they ran out to meet the Taylorville Tornadoes. The boys showed themselves proud, defeating Taylorville 32—7 and thereby helping to make this year's Homecoming one of the best ever.

But the climax was yet to come. Under a roof of orange and white balloons the queen candidates started their stately walk to the stage. And then the climax—Joe Gray crowned Terri Noel, Queen of the 1964 Homecoming.

Queen Terri Noel and Captain Joe Gray.

The Queen in her chariot.

Fourteen beautiful girls.

Have we got a team?

A football team? You've got to be kidding.

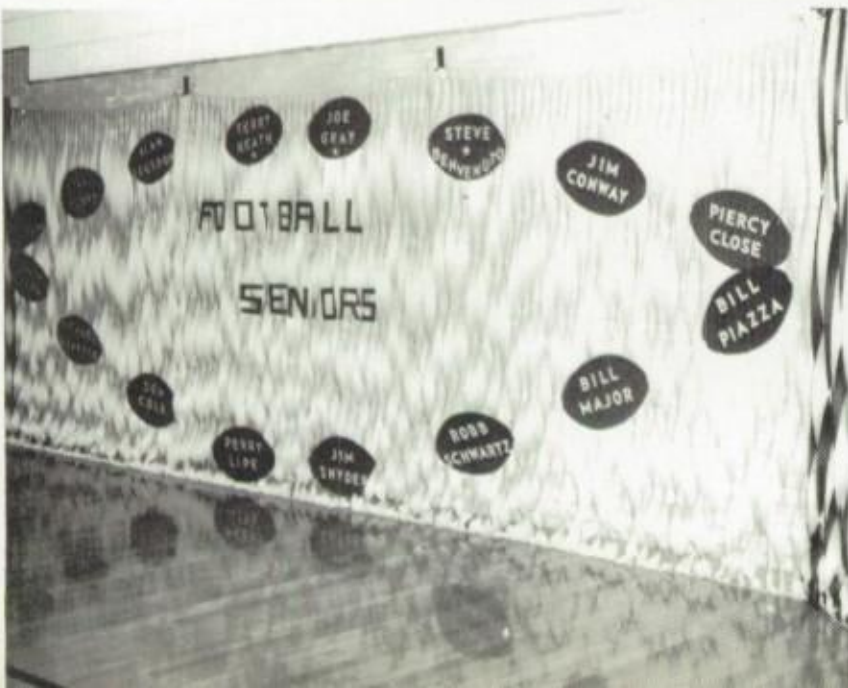

Team spirit is at its best.

Ugh!

GYM SHOW

The Fliptoppers worked diligently all year in preparation for their annual gym show. In it they exhibited all the fine exercises they had learned from Mr. Logsdon and various teams they went to watch. The show was an overwhelming success making all the Fliptoppers proud to have participated in such a fine performance.

The latest thing in gym wear.

Profile of perfection.

Where did my horse go?

The most popular booth of all.

The cutest baby ever.

PENNY CARNIVAL

Each year the G.A.A. sponsors the Penny Carnival. This year the various activities in the gym were divided with red, white, and pink streamers. The "Choose the Cutest Baby" contest was a big success, brought lots of laughs, and ended when Jim Conway was crowned the Baby King. The sheriffs kept kids on their toes. If not—off to the Kangaroo Court where they were tried and convicted.

P.E. was never this popular.

Arthur Murray would be proud of you.

FRESHMAN- SOPHOMORE PARTY

On January 25th the Freshman and Sophomore classes held their annual party. Under the direction of Mrs. Hinman and Mrs. Johnson, the guests enjoyed many party games and relays. Then after a breather and some refreshments the students ended the evening with dancing.

Harold, you're a life saver.

1—2—3 slide.

Let's not fight; there's plenty for all.

SPANISH—LATIN CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY

For some of the students at H.H.S. the Christmas season began on December 17, when the Spanish and Latin Clubs met for their annual Yuletide festivities. A special air of gaiety filled the gym as everyone enjoyed several musical selections and John Leebeck's slides of his recent trip to Venezuela. After breaking two Spanish piñatas, the guests spent the rest of the evening dancing.

Education shows up at the oddest times.

Before his execution.

You can always depend on Freshmen to be first in line.

WINTER FORMAL

Without food, we may die, with this, we surely will.

Misty was the setting for this year's Winter Formal. Anyone could easily imagine himself among the stars as he looked around the gym. From the big crescent moon in the center to the blue and white roof overhead, he was on cloud nine.

On cloud nine among the stars.

Ouch, do my feet ever hurt.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

We've learned from her more than she could ever hope to learn from us.

Mardy Lindqvist
Kapellhamnsvägen 23
Hangö, Finland

Hillsboro has been the nicest town I could ever have wished to stay in. I have always felt at home here. Friendly faces, smiles, and helpful hands have helped me on my way and made this year one of the most valuable experiences of my life.

I can still remember how flattered I was when I knew I was coming here. I had read so much about this country; I had dreamed and studied. I was nearly afraid to arrive here; who was to guarantee that my image was correct? Still I looked forward to it and counted the days.

The first few days here were confusing. Used to staying in one room all day, I was completely lost in all the corridors. I was also confused by taking so few subjects. At home I had had twelve subjects and had no difficulty in handling them. I found a very close contact between pupils and teachers common. But still there was a nice amount of respect for all the teachers.

Of course some of the customs were new to me. It took me a while to get used to girls not being able to wear slacks to school and changing clothes every day of the week. Some of the color combinations I saw were unusual for me, and I came to the conclusion that Americans like brightness.

Now when this year comes to its close, there are so many things to say and so much to remember. But maybe you will understand how much I've enjoyed staying here if I tell you: "I'll miss you all."

Mardy Lindqvist

A perfect setting

What can cause expressions like these? Only an adult.

OPERETTA

Idaho, Idaho, Idy, Idy, Idy, Idy, Idaho . . .

We doooo have work to do.

I think it's called ballet.

On April 3, and 4, the Hillsboro High School chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Rappe, presented the operetta, "Check Your Worries." This musical comedy was different than any other performed at H.H.S. For this year Mr. Pence and the dance band joined the chorus to present a very successful performance.

The story was set in the small town of Hartsville, Idaho, and tells how the town was affected by the arrival of two Life Magazine reporters.

A perfect disguise for a detective?

Table of the dignitaries.

Prom night began with a candlelight banquet in the cafeteria. The room was gayly decorated in pastel colors. After dinner the Class Will and Prophecy were read by the class officers.

At 11:00 the climax of the evening was reached when Myra Jean Damman and Mike Dagon were crowned queen and king of the Senior Prom.

How do the flowers affect you?

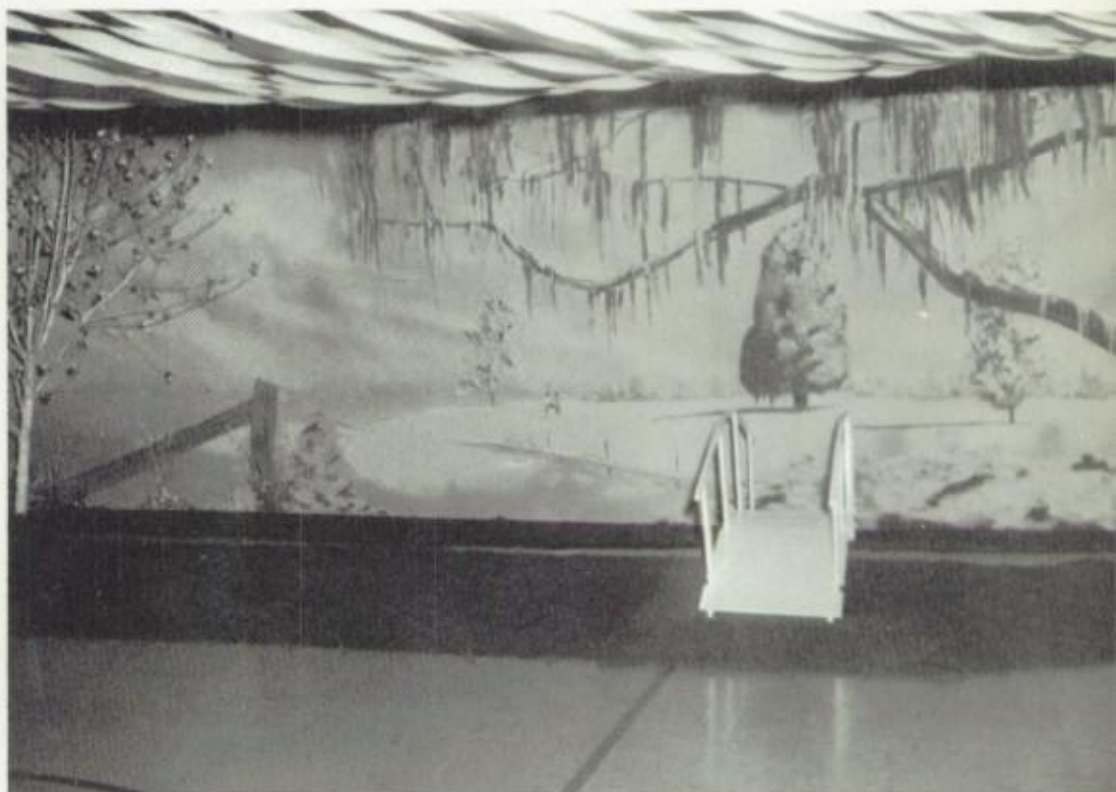

What's that behind your back.

The royal couple.

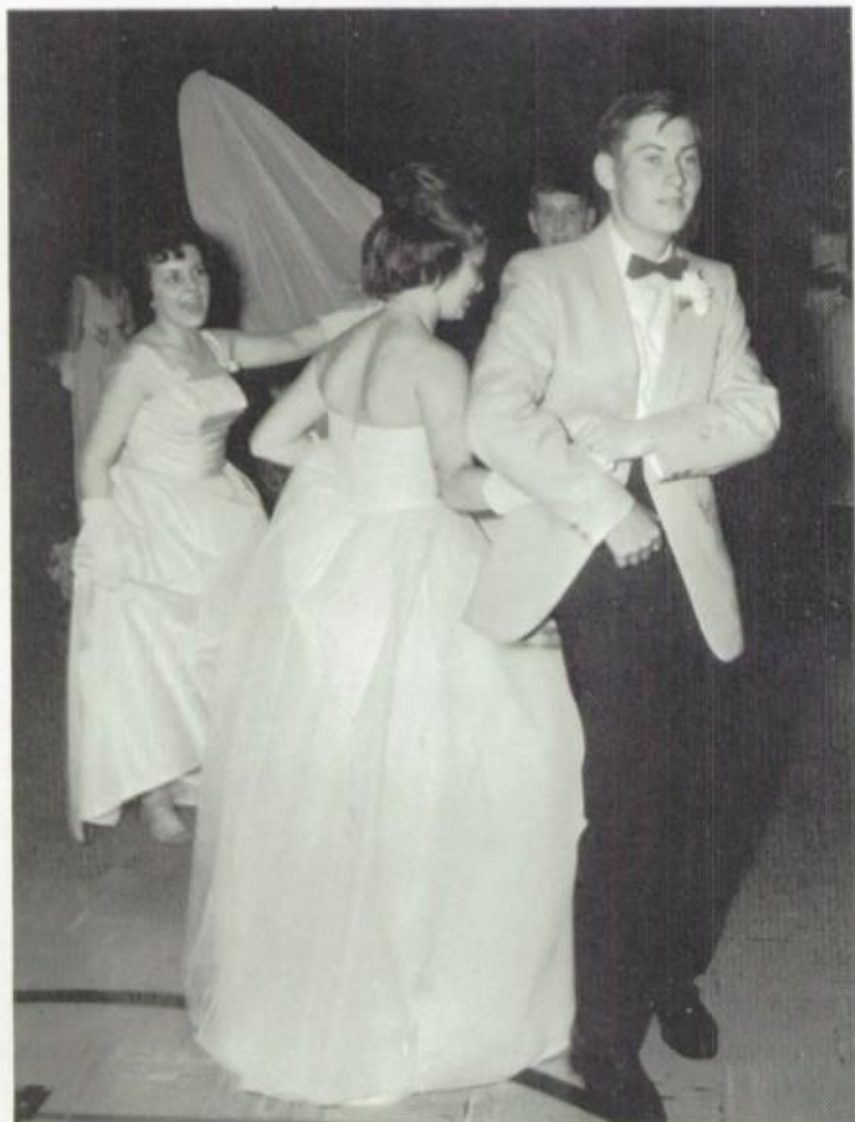

A woman is loviest in a lovely dress.

Over the bridge and through the woods to Grandma's house we go.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Come on, Cinderella.

The theme for this year's prom, was "PASTELS OF SPRING." On entering the gym the students were amazed to see a huge yellow butterfly in the middle of the room sitting on a mound of lavender flowers. At one end of the room there was a spring scene with a bubbling brook and a budding tree.

Everyone enjoyed dancing to the music of Frankie Paul and hated to see a delightful evening end.

It says here in fine print—

THE SPRING CONCERT

A proud director he must be.

The Spring Concert was presented on May 1, to a full house. In everyone's opinion the band did an outstanding job. Special music this year included a trumpet solo by Mike Hull. The dance band then took over and featured several of their capable musicians and singers. Everyone must agree that these kids have a lot to "blow" about.

Let the show begin.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

1,2,3, ugh. 1,2,3, ugh.

Hello, Daddy Dear.

HELLO, Dolly!

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The Senior Class worked hard this year to put on the play, "Take Her, She's Mine," the story of a young girl's years at college and the trials and tribulations of her parents. Although the work was hard and the practices long, all who participated were happy when the performance was over and the play was a success.

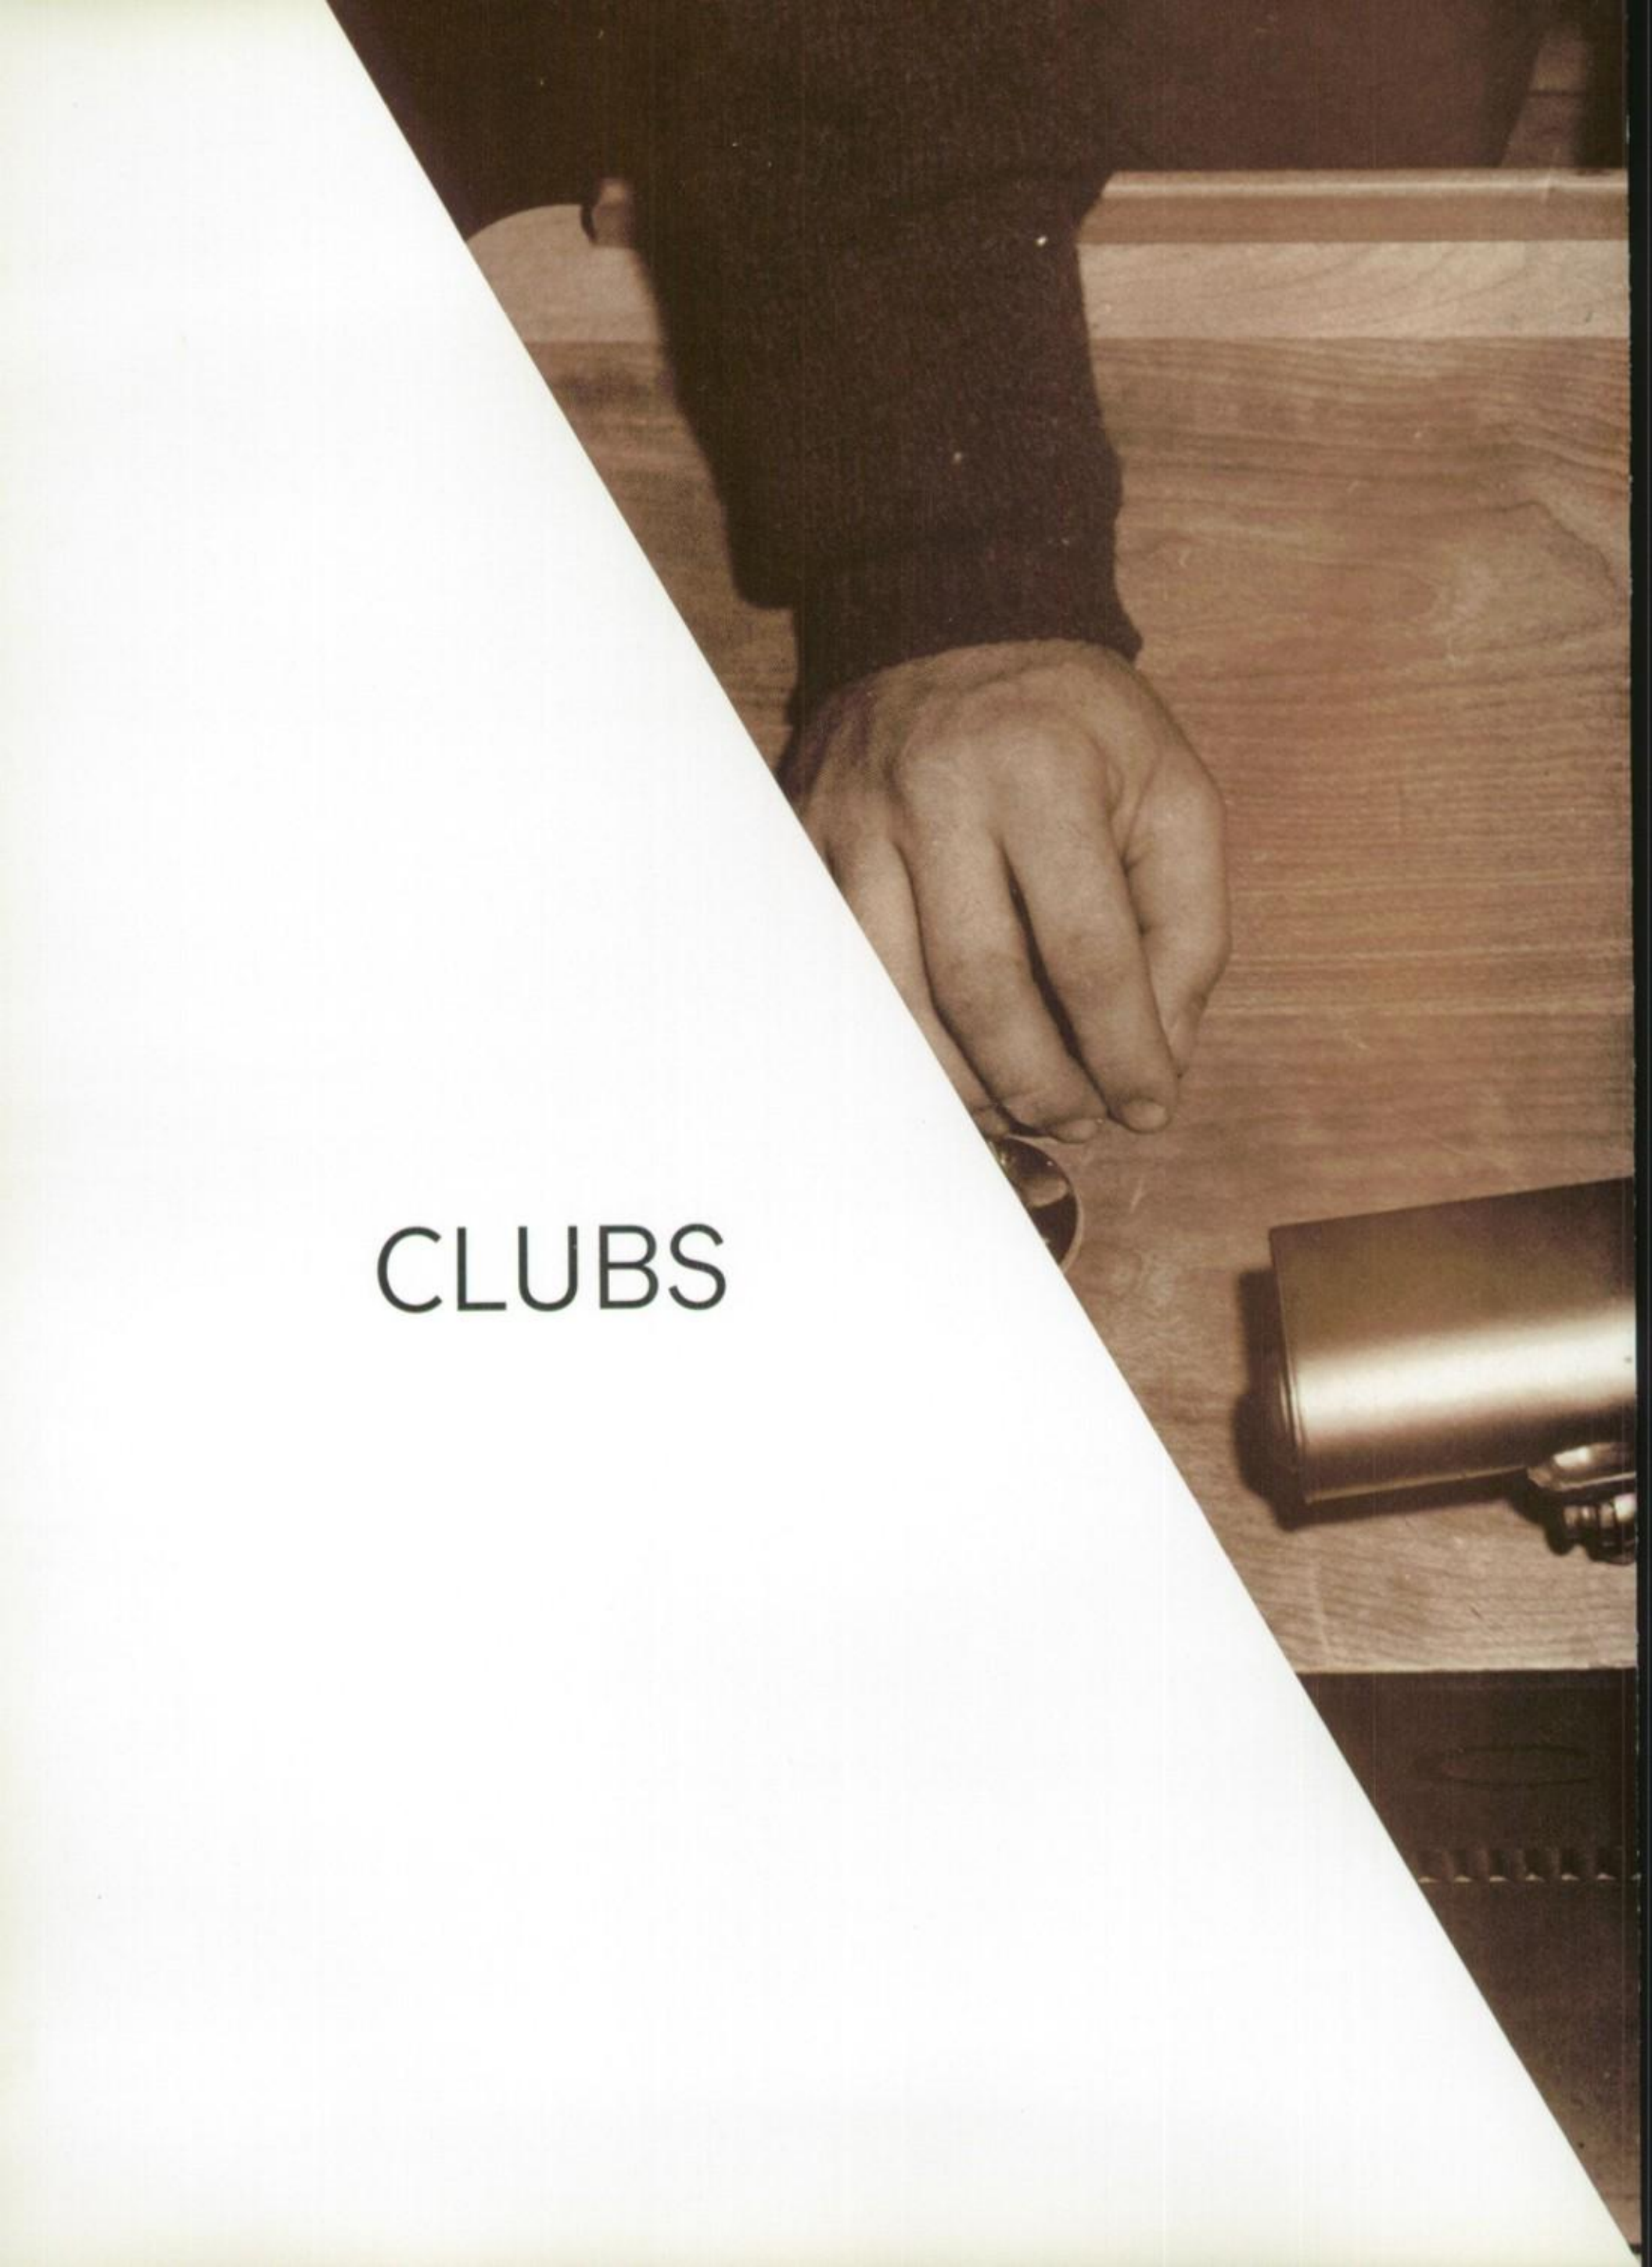

Sir, do you have a headache?

The hardest part of meeting is saying good-bye.

THE EDITORS

The Editorial Staff this year is made up of the two editors, Cathy Skinn and Alan Logsdon, the literary editor, Janet Maninfior, and the secretary, Linda White. It is their job to plan the book, get the pictures taken, cut them, and assemble them on the pages. Working hard for a good publication, they make the effort more than worthwhile.

THE LITERARY STAFF

The Literary Staff is the editing staff of the Hiltop. The members of the Literary Staff, under the direction of Mr. Cornett, make the Hiltop the wonderful memorable book that it is. They write, criticize, and rewrite until they meet their goal. As the pictures are taken, the "blurbs" are written and swiftly but carefully the book takes shape. The staff members are assigned certain jobs and they do them for the good of the whole school. But only through the skilled leadership of our editors is the deadline met. Perfection at last!

THE FINANCIAL STAFF

HILTOP ADVISORS: Mr. Dagon, Mr. Zimmerman, Mr. Cornett.

The Financial Staff, under the supervision of Mr. Zimmerman, is responsible for all the money made for the production of the Hiltop. They work with the Booster Club in selling soda and candy at school and at the football and basketball games. Their main goal is to make it possible for the students of H.H.S. to buy their Hiltops for as little as possible.

LATIN CLUB

The main aim of the Latin Club is to create a greater knowledge of Latin. There are two divisions in the club. One consists of beginning students and the other of advanced students. Meetings are held monthly where the students learn more about the Roman culture and language by skits, songs, and films. The Latin Club joins the Spanish Club in December for the Spanish-Latin Christmas Party. The Latin Club also holds a Roman Banquet in the spring.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club, under the direction of Mrs. McCall, is not only a H.H.S. club, but it is now a national one. Seventeen outstanding Spanish students with 4.75 averages are members of the National Honor Society. The club also belongs to IFPAL, a state organization. A picnic, Christmas party, and a chili supper are among the club's social functions.

G.A.A. is one of the most active clubs in H.H.S. Every girl in school is eligible to join this club provided she has met the following requirements: (1) heart exam, (2) twenty-four points by the end of the first semester, (3) has a "C" average in all academic courses. G.A.A. activities this year were bowling, tennis, archery, softball, touch football, recreational sports, stunts and tumbling, table tennis and basketball. G.A.A. also sponsors the Winter Formal, Miss Cairns, the club advisor, has worked patiently with the girls to make the club an outstanding organization.

F.H.A.

F.H.A. is a club for girls who have at least one year of homemaking. Its main goal is to make a better home, community, and life for everyone. The girls work toward this through civic and money making activities. F.H.A. is not only fun and entertaining, it is educational. This year the main project was Mental Health. The members visited nursing homes, read about mental illnesses, and tried to understand how these handicapped people can be helped.

BUSINESS CLUB

The Business Club is a worth-while organization made possible by its fine sponsors Mr. Cornett, Mr. Dagon, and Mr. Zimmerman. This club is designed to better students' knowledge of business education and procedure. It is created to lead students of all commercial courses into a better understanding of the business world.

To make this club more active and interesting, guest speakers are invited to the monthly meetings to advise the members.

BAND

Our band was really one to be proud of this year. It put on very excellent shows at the football games and provided fine entertainment for fans during the basketball season. The time Mr. Pence, the director, and the band members spent for practice was very worthwhile and this was proven at the annual Spring Concert.

AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

The Amateur Radio Club is an organization of licensed amateur operators and people studying for the license examination. Because of these requirements, the Radio Club is one of the smallest high school organizations.

The Radio Club provides instruction in International Morse code and radio theory for beginners. Then it provides a complete station for use of licensed operators. The Radio Club owes its existence to the Montgomery County Amateur Radio Emergency Corps, which owns the equipment used by the club.

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

The Lettermen's Club is composed of those boys who have earned their varsity letter in inter-scholastic sports. It is its purpose to recognize outstanding athletes, and promote good sportsmanship. The Lettermen's Club this year reversed its constitution and sponsored a benefit basketball game to raise money for new bleachers. In the spring new Lettermen were initiated in a solemn (?) ceremony at Lake Hillsboro.

FLIPTOPPERS

The Fliptoppers, one of the newest organizations in school, is a gymnastic group supervised by Mr. Logsdon. Gymnastic equipment includes trampoline, horse, springboard, rings, rope, high bar, and parallel bars. The parallel bars have been purchased this year with money made from an International Circus sponsored by the Fliptoppers in December. Other activities during the year included a trip to Eastern Illinois University to watch a Swedish gym team perform. The remainder of the afternoon was spent working out with the Eastern gymnastic group. The Fliptoppers practiced weekly in order to present a show in January. Emblems were awarded for the first time this year to those members who took an active part in this year's club work.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club is a club for all student librarians. The main purposes of the organization are to recruit students to a career of library work, give daily service to our school, and to learn more about the operation of a library. The student body owes a great deal of thanks to the librarians for their fine work.

STUDENT COUNCIL

At the beginning of the year each class elected seven people to represent it on the Student Council. This organization meets twice a week and strives for better relationships between teachers and pupils and improved conditions around the school. This year, under the guidance of Mr. Tuthill, the group accomplished a great many things. It sponsored Homecoming and its many activities, provided numerous aftergame dances, undertook the task of raising the money for next year's foreign exchange student, and completed several projects of improvement around the school—the biggest being the restoration of the lights on the campus.

The group worked extremely hard, and all was done in hopes of carrying out the desires of all fellow students.

Despite the weird sounds that came from room 1 at the beginning of the year, the chorus, under the patient direction of Mrs. Rappe, turned out some beautiful music for its many performances. They charmed the teachers at Teacher's Institute, combined forces with Mr. Walker's choir for a very nice Christmas program, took a tour to Raymond, and presented an outstanding operetta.

CHORUS

Because of the many pupils who wished to join chorus this year, a new one was organized under the direction of Mr. Walker. Meeting twice a week in the Agricultural building, this small training choir joined with Mrs. Rappe's chorus to present the Christmas program and annual operetta.

Coaches Hart, Horst, and Babel worked hard this year trying to condition the players so that we would have a fine team again this year.

After a slow start in the Mid-State Conference, the Toppers bounced back to a four-game winning streak. The team finished the season third in the Mid-State with a conference record of four wins and three losses. The team's overall record was six wins and three losses.

The Freshmen who went out for football this year worked under Mr. DeSollar's watchful eye, first learning the fundamentals of football and then proceeding on to the finer points of the game.

J.V. FOOTBALL

The Junior Varsity football team labored this year under the watchful eye of coaches Babel and DeSollar. With the training they received they went on to compile the outstanding record of seven wins and no losses, an undefeated season. We are expecting great things from these boys in years to come.

The Hillsboro Cheerleaders, under the direction of Mrs. Hinman, brought out the very spirit of Hillsboro all through the year. Striving for perfection, they attended a cheerleading clinic at Normal University. After returning, they demonstrated the new stimulating cheers which they had learned.

This year for the first time the girls raised money to help with their expenses. They sold the cheerleading sweaters from years past at very reasonable prices and used this money to help purchase their outfits.

So hats off to the enthusiastic cheerleaders of H.H.S.

BASKETBALL

The Varsity team finished in a streak of glory this year. Although we were very satisfied with their 10 wins, 8 losses record for the regular season, their tournament record overwhelmed us. Their tournament record of 7 and 3 again brought glory to Hillsboro High. Failing to finish well in the Collinsville Tournament, Horst's charges came back with renewed determination to sweep the effingham Holiday Tournament. Then in the State Tournament preliminaries the Toppers surprised everyone but us when they took the regional crown and went on to place second in the Vandalia Sectional Tourney, being defeated by first-ranked Collinsville.

J.V. BASKETBALL

Although many of Mr. Hart's more promising players were taken by Mr. Horst this year, Mr. Hart worked hard with his boys to instill in them ability coupled with good sportsmanship and an incentive to win. With this combination the boys compiled a record they can be proud of.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The Freshman basketball team worked out under the direction of Mr. Logsdon, who worked with them to fully develop each players abilities to their fullest. Although they didn't compile the most impressive record we know that they have developed the skills that will make them future candidates for the Varsity team.

In spite of many delayed track meets and weather that made it almost impossible to practice, the track team sprinted on to a 5 and 1 record. They also placed third against rough competition at the conference track meet.

BASEBALL

The baseball team had a rough season this year. If the diamond wasn't muddy, it was dusty, creating bad playing conditions. We feel, though, that in spite of this the boys learned many of the skills that will bring us good teams in years to come.

CONFERENCE GOLF TEAM

GOLF

This year's golf team was not highly successful, but it showed good prospect for the future. Because there were only two seniors on the team, the seasons won-lost record of 3—5—1 was just mediocre. The conference match this year was played at Hillsboro with the Hiltoppers finishing second in the contest. Vandalia won the conference this year with Litchfield, Pana, Taylorville, and Effingham finishing behind us.

1964 CLASS PROPHECY

When Richard Tobias, our Senior Class president and favorite playboy, heard that Mardy Lindqvist, our former foreign exchange student, was back in the U.S. he decided that this would be a good time for another class reunion. A few of the local classmates and Mardy met at Dick's house to begin locating the others. Mardy is internationally famous now because of the amazing number of languages she has learned. As she remembers her year at Hillsboro, she smiles to think of the terms and words learned there that she could never find in the dictionary.

As people begin arriving someone turns on the T.V. and we find Debby Imle starring in her own series. Her love scenes still smolder best with younger men. At commercial time we catch our breath as we see Rodney and Roger Christian in their commercial, "Do Blondes Have More Fun?"

We turn the channel and see that Roger Moler has made hot news in the medical profession. But is this what he really wants? Leading role of "The Nurses?"

A special newsreel appears featuring champion David Beeler's world-shaking wrestling match with Cassius Claybrook. His secret? He figures his falls with calculus.

Announcer Gene Elmore reports a flash bulletin from Olympic grounds. Joan Bauer, while jumping hurdles, tripped on her sweat socks AGAIN (a bad habit from high school days) and dislocated her middle toe.

Switching to the Metropolitan Opera scene we see Larry Lazenby blazing forth in his magnificent interpretation of Romeo. As you might have guessed, Peggy Beach is his blushing Juliet. While we sit entranced by their most torrid love scene there is a sudden scream and Judy Goyak crashes through the scenery, interrupting the passion on stage. We see that Judy's great vocal and dramatic ability have landed her at her long-awaited destination, the Met. stage. (Judy, a stagehand, fell through the scenery while doing some last minute painting.)

Alice Barker and Judy Schafer have taken over the DUTCH MILL. Just as "The Polka" was famous at Mike's, Glenda Barnes and Glenn Nicholas named their unique way of dancing "The Bird" and it has gained equal popularity.

Along the street we come upon Robb Schwartz lecturing on a park bench in front of the courthouse. We find that Robb has become a great orator. His two main themes are "Honesty is the Best Policy" and "How to Make Book Reports on Classic Comic Books."

In the distance we see Terri Noel going into her favorite hangout, Aunt Mary's, carrying a large bundle, believed to be "cheddar cheese."

Bill Wilhelm and Sandy McNew have found stardom. They are an accomplished ballet team and recently were leads in the "Swan."

Danny White has followed in his father's footsteps. He's a preacher in Vandalia. His left-hand men are those pious dedicated deacons, Jesse Kershaw and Louis Hyatt.

As we check our records we see that one of our schoolmates is eligible for the special award given at the reunion. Hiram Renfro presents Joe Gray the "Patience" Award.

Linda Bledsaw and Larry Hollaway haven't quite made it to the reunion yet. Probably still loitering around the halls together, as usual.

We hear a siren and after investigating we learn that Loren Caulk, a member of the F.B.I., has just arrested Kelly Marcolini. Kelly was stopped after dark on a certain lonely road between Hillsboro and Litchfield.

As we continue our plans for the reunion, Gary Cartwright comes in with a big mysterious package in one arm and Connie Mutchler in the other. We ask Connie what's in the package and she asks if there are any doctors around. Then she whispers in our ears, "Sorry, we can't tell. It's a secret."

We decide to hold our reunion supper at a newly opened night-spot which turns out to be none other than Piercy Close's "Fat Cat's!" There, while making arrangements, we find Doris Cranfill, head dietician, who directs us to Piercy's private office. As we enter we 'think' we see someone disappearing out the back door. On investigation, Chris Tarran appears, who's still a little shy about her new job as head "Chorus Girl." We finally find Piercy in the bar. He is having a discussion with his bartender, Jim Conway. We hear Jim's job at the Grand was too dull. Fat Cat's is really quite fashionable—he even has his own dance instructor, Mike Dagon. We find him busy teaching Susan Stokes and Jean Ondrey an old dance from the past, the Twist.

What's all that commotion? We turn and see Steve Benvenuto hopping around happily. It seems he has just received the one key that completes his collection. He now has a key to every playboy club in the world. It was given to him by that master of all playboys, David Huber.

Rosa Lee Morrison mentions that we might be able to find some of our classmates at the Orpheum. After sneaking in, as usual, past the manager, Jean Herman, we hear a grunting and groaning from the back row. We turn and see Jack Rebman struggling to get out of his seat to get another giant economy size box of buttered popcorn.

The lights dim, the curtain opens and who should we see but Eddie Miller and Wally Grabow starring in the modern version of Christine Tarran's cartoon "Mutt and Jeff." The main feature stars the great sensation, The Beat-less Five, consisting of John McCario, tuba, Steve Teegarden, piccolo, John Murphy, first soprano, John Shere, monotone, and Patricia Lewey, double bass. Next, a newsreel informs us that Myra Jean Dammann, a member of the International Jet Set, was arrested in Rome along with her companions, Patty Hiller, Robert Ray, and Bill Piazza. It seems that Myra and her friends, always rebels against society's norms, were arrested for holding a midnight frolic in a famous Roman fountain.

Maureen Bollman and Barbara Towell are bored at the show as usual and want to go driving around. We agree and ask Susan Whalen to take her car. As she approaches an intersection in her slow deliberate way, the car suddenly gives out a soft chuckle of pain and dies. But after a few minutes of coaxing it starts again, and we soon arrive at the beach. We approach the general area of the beach, but it seems that it has disappeared in the throng of people covering it. We follow lifeguard Joe Smith as he breaks through the crowd to get a better view of Marsha Purcell, the center of attraction and envy in her yellow bikini. Two young ladies seem to be having trouble locating someone. Have they misplaced their children? No, it seems that they have just broken through the crowd and found their hubbies Bill Major and Reggie Greenwood gallantly assisting Marsha in seeing that her beach towel is straight.

Sheri Venturelli and Brenda Durbin have finally seen the light. They are now creepin' thru the Congo as dedicated missionaries. Brenda is especially admired for her way of always bring out and talking about the good qualities of others.

Lila Collilieux, who owns the new Stork Club is featuring a new sensation. Judy Yount has won fame in this act as Gypsy "Rosy." Working along side "Rosy" we find the notoriously popular Mary Ellen Parks who always seems to be in trouble with her employer. She just can't seem to keep hold of those fans.

Linda Moore is working at Bremer's Rock Quarry now. She is really becoming a "chip off the old Stone."

Sheriff Marilyn Costa is holding two of our former classmates, Larry Lynn and Sandra Brown. They weren't in on any special charge, it's just that they aroused public suspicion for not wearing matching shirts. In the next cell we find Judy Keith. Guess Judy has just never been able to control that vicious wild streak.

Dianne Huber's quarter-mile "Drag" has taken Alton Dragway's place among the hot-rod fans. Last week's finalists were: First place—Bob Salmon. Second place—Bob Sanford (who would have gotten First if he'd had a clutch). Third place—Larry Shyrook. Booby prize goes to Sharol Keune. Guess why!!

Joey Gutierrez and Fern White have recently gone in for politics. Joey's wish is to be mayor of Taylor Springs and Fern is a hopeful candidate for Chairman of City Improvements. It seems Fern thought the town was lacking something.

Perry Lipe is now teaching floral arrangements to freshman girls in a new experimental high school. Don Gregg the principal, pioneered a new concept in school courses here. Jim Whites' class is the most popular. He teaches the English course. Carol Hamby has become a teacher known for her motto in class, "Silence is Golden." Ava Nowlan and Jeannette Hayes have been conducting experiments on Karen Harbert's hair and scalp testing whether that head or any head, so tortured and so molested, can long endure.

Three of our most fragrant seniors have entered the profession of toiletries. Richard Bonetto has become renowned for his perfumed letter jacket. Jim Butler just recently opened a shaving-cream factory specializing in instant foamy push-button cans. And last but not least, Gene Calufetti brought fourth a new concept in room deodorizers.

Paul Kelly is a family man now and has ten little ones. But Mr. Tuthill has been sending notes to him lately saying that Paul Kelly, Jr. has been spending more time with the girl at school than in his classes. Paul senior just can't see where his son gets that playboy streak.

In the newspaper, as we glance over the Society Page, we find a new column has been added, "Larry's Advice to the Lovelorn." Looks like Larry Attebery helps an old friend solve a love problem. Becky Boone seems to have great confidence in Larry's advice and writes daily.

Although Jane Ellington's wedding was spectacular we feel she did get a little carried away by her enthusiasm for her husband's profession. Those at the church watched Jane arrive in a long black hearse driven by Jane Fletcher, and the bride, radiant and smiling, was dressed in white lace and accompanied by pallbearers in blue.

Bill Floyd, Cathy Skinn, and Alan Logsdon have gathered together their mighty brains and produced that handbook which has become the pillar of our nation, "Fink or Fwim."

Cynthia Salsi and Carol Randle are still reigning queens. Cynthia gained her crown for Miss Luscious Lima Bean and Carol has become Miss Racy Rootabaga.

Lela Lawson has been making quite a bit of money sending stories to "True Romance." We're not supposed to reveal this, but as a telephone operator she gets her information eavesdropping on Linda White and Terry Heath's heated converstaions.

Janet Maninfior has become a typing teacher at H.H.S. She still wants to be near you know who.

Jill Bullington lives in East Fork Twp. now. She is a faithful little wife, planting crops, sloppin' the hogs and spreading manure. But somehow her husband is a little worried. He has just found out that their hired hand, Louis Bolt, had a notorious reputation in his younger days. In fact, some even called him Lover Louis!

Bob Edwards got tired of running to the Manor Motel every day so he got a job there as belhop.

After Connie Benny's many years of high school preparation at the Coliseum she has returned with an act of her own, "Bubbles Benny and the Blowouts."

We see that Susan Roos hasn't settled down yet either, she's still having business? affairs with Terry Peel.

We've been trying to get an audience with Premier Terry Peel of Lower Slobovia. His press secretary, Phyllis DeWitt, says his schedule is filled with such celebrities as Leo Murray, the famous sculptor and Don Cole, last surviving glass-blower. But then, even in high school days, Terry was a Very Important Person.

Doris Campbell, Emily Myers and Sherry Wilton have formed a joint marriage counseling service. Because of their experience, their advice is highly valued.

Oh, no. Panama is having another Mulligan. As always, Panama boys are trying to get Jan Slagel and Joyce Lewey to dance the two-step with them, but as usual they are too bashful to dance and decide to go supervise the Mulligan stew. As John Conway cuts turtles up and throws them into the huge kettle, Winnie Conway stirs the stew. Her spoon suddenly hits something solid. It lets out a glub and up comes Loren Compton. Poor Loren is still having trouble with his shyness around girls. It seems that Karen Hamilton smiled at him in her friendly way and he started blushing so much that he jumped into the stew. After that everyone starts having such a good time that we move the whole reunion to Panama and stay for the rest of the day.
